IDAHO LAWMAKERS ARE GETTING BUSY

Pushing Legislation in Order to Finish at the Appointed Time,

BUT TWO WEEKS NOW REMAIN.

Road Commission Bill Framed-Plethera of Candidates for State Offices.

Special Correspondence. Boise, Idaho, Feb. 14.-With only two weeks of the session remaining, both houses of the legislature are working at fever heat. There remains but one day more for the introduction of bills, and tonight a joint meeting of the house appropriation committee and the senate finance committee are at work completing the measure.

There are still a number of what might be called administration measmight be called administration measures that are awaiting action by both houses. Chief among these is the bill for the reorganization of the land department. The passage of this measure is greatly desired by all the members of the state land board, who express the epinion that under the plan of reorganization formulated by the bill now under consideration, the state would benefit materially. The state would benefit materially. would benefit materially. The state banking law is also being considered in committee, and the same thing is true of the bill providing for the crea-tion of the office of state examiner, whose duties are those of a traveling uld benefit materially.

ROAD COMMISSSION.

The plan of the bill for the creation The plan of the bill for the creation of the Idaho intermountain wagon road commission has finally been determined upon, and the measure will be introduced at once. It has been decided that the commission shall consist of two members, in addition to the governor, who shall be ex-officio chairman of the board. The original plan was for a commission of one person from each judicial district. This, it was felt, would make the commission expensive and cumbersome. The commission bill will carry an appropriation of $50,000, and will take the place of all the road bills that have been introduced during the session.

The passage of the adultery and polygamy measure, it is felt, finally disposes of the campaign cry of which so much was attempted to be made during the last campaign. With the addition of these measures there will be on tion of these measures there will be on the statute books of Idaho stringent laws against bigamy, polygamy, adul-tery and illegal or unlawful cohabita-tion. If the moral sense of the various communities is not amply protected by these laws, it is difficult to im-agine any laws or series of laws that would furnish such protection. %

Poer Country for Bounty on Wild Animals-Gossip of Country Generally.

(Special to the "News.") Provo. Feb. 16 .- George Cluff, formerly of Pleasant View, has written an interesting letter from Los Cruses, Mexico, under date of Jan. 14, 1905, to Prof. J. B. Walton, from which the "News" has been permitted to publish the following extracts: "Leaving Utah on the 9th of November we were just 17 days reaching our destination. We all enjoyed the trip very much, especially our stay in Mexico City. The farther south we got the more like spring it seemed, until reaching this state, Tabasco, we have continual spring. Since arriving the thermometer has ranged between the thermometer has ranged between 79 and 65 degrees, a variation of 14 degrees. A refreshing bath in the river every morning—how's that?

"This is a new country to us, and, like all new countries, has its drawbacks as well as advantages. It is a rainy country. Perhaps a little too much rain for a Rock canyon fruit farmer. The roads are muddy nine months in the year. The land is mostly covered with heavy timber, and the roads are trails through these forests. Where there is no forest the roads are mostly dry. The lack of society is perhaps our greatest drawback. This, we think will shortly be overcome, for we have just had a visit from a committee representing 40 Utah men, who are negotiating for a 300,000 acre piece of land adjoining the Utah Mexican Rubber Co.'s land. If the purchase is made, 20 families will move down in the spring. Another drawbacks are the ticks, fleas and mosquitoes. I hadn't been here two weeks, with the sended life I had. other drawbacks are the ticks, fleas and mosquitoes. I hadn't been here two weeks until it seemed like I had struck one of the apartments of hades. When the ticks sting we have to scratch; and the more we scratch the worse it is. As soon as the blood becomes thin the bite is not nearly so painful. Those who have been here a year or more pay very little attention. A few moth balls left in the bedding in the day keeps it free from flees, and with mosquito bar we control the mosquitos and we are always sure of a good night's sleep. There are very few snakes here. I have been in forest, the snake's home, since I arrived, and have only seen two, though they were large. snake's home, since I arrived, and have only seen two, though they were large, six and a half and seven feet; they were quite harmless. I have not seen any wild animals yet, though I hear them often in the woods. This is a healthy country, in spite of all that has been said to the contrary. There has never been known a case of yellow faver excent in our sea port towns, ever, except in our sea port towns, where there is so much filth. We have none of the prevailing diseases of the north. Malaria is about the only dis-ease the natives here know anything about. On coming into the country a person must diet himself until he becomes acclimated. I have gained fif-teen pounds since leaving Utah. If I keep on dieting myself I'll weigh a ton I eat only native food, prepared and cooked by natives.
"I am in the employ of the U. M. R.

Co. as contractor for the clearing of timber land and planting rubber. It osts us from $8 to $16 an acre, acce ing to the density of the forest, for felling the timber and burning it. I quote prices in Mexican silver, one-half of which would be gold. It looks like a shame to burn so much fine saw tima sname to ourn so many beautiful poles, but there are hundreds of thousands of acres of this forest and not a saw mill in the land. Tell my neighbor, Mr. Brereton, to bring a saw mill down In the land. Tell my neighbor, all. Brereton, to bring a saw mill down here, and he can make more money in five years than he can make where he is in twenty-five. After the timber is felled and burned, we plant corn, the first crop in June, which averages 40 bushels per acre, and the second crop in November, 30 bushels per acre. All this without plowing. Each acre must be cleared four times during the year of vines, weeds, etc. This work is done with a "machete" (long knife) in the hands of the natives. You pay a native 50 cents per day, the highest price. Corn is selling for $2 per bushel. The first cost of your acre is $10, for clearing and burning, $15, for cultivation, $4 total, $29. The yield, 70 bushels at $2 $140, giving you a profit of $111 for seed, planting and harvesting. I don't know whether you believe this or not, but it whether you believe this or not, but it is being done every year. I mention corn because it is the staff of life down ere, and finds a good local market. To crops a year of beans, potatoes d vegetables of all kinds. Land can be bought very cheap in large tracts but you cannot count on getting it for less than $10 per acre, Mexican, or $5 gold, in 50 or 100 acre lots. There is no plowing done here, as yet by anybody. This will come in time. Our principal exports will be sugar, coffee, rubber, cocoa and tropical fruits, ma-ogany and dyewoods must be includ-I like the country and have conclud. ed to remain at least five years. If at the end of that time we see fit to return we will do so. Should colonists come in and good schools be established, then this will be our permanent home. Mr. Cluff will come down next summer. If you are not satisfied where you are, and should fall to satisfy yourself at Uin-tah, why not turn your face toward the south. There are many opportunities down here for those who get here first and learn the anguage, My brother and I have located a beautiful tract of land on the Grejalva river, which we vill probably secure and colonize. The ocation is beautiful, and the river navigable all the way. A townsite will be located, and a school established. In making up this colony we will not con-sider a man's religion or politics. Let sider a man's religion or politics. Let him be of good moral character. Drinking men ought not to come here for liquor is too cheap. I believe there are hundreds of young men in Utah who, if they knew the position of this county, would come down. Living here is very cheap. Clothing costs but little. A good big house, suitable for a family like yours or mine, made of thatch until you can do better will cost about $100 Mexican no expense for fuel. How much easier to make a start here than in coid countries.

The fare down here, the way I came, cost $96, first class. A new line of steamers has just been put in from Galvesion, which we think will greatly reduce the prices. They will touch at Tampico. Vera Cruz, Coatzacolcus and Tampico, Vera Cruz, Coatzacolcus and Frontera. Frontera is at the mouth of the Grejalva, and on this river two regular river steamers ply as far up as Hulmanguille, our present post office, Our contemplated land is yet farther up the river. No ticks and very few mosquitoes there. The land faces the river, and the town will be located on its 1 | banks, a most picturesque place to live.'

The letter further states that the thermometer on the date of writing registered 74. "The hottest day last summer went up to 99. The frequent rains keep the atmosphere cool.

"EMPEROR AND AUTOCRAT."

The general allusion to the ruler of Russia as the czar is, strictly speaking ncorrect. His official title is "emperor and autocrat." "Czar" is the old Rus-sian word for "lord" or "prince" and was abandoned by Peter the Great on his triumphal return from Poltava, his crowning victory over Charles XII. of Sweden. Since then the Russian monarch has been officially entitled "the emperor," and at the congress of Vienna in 1815 his right to the imperial term was admitted by the powers, with the proviso that, though he was emperor he had no precedence over the kings of western Europe.

PENNY GOSSIP.

The duck sesson brought out many hunters yesterday morning, but the most that was shot, according to the best available reports, was ammunition. As the legislators will probably see to it that there is no spring season, hereafter, it might be well to shoot away that overstock of shells this week.

Monday, Wednesday and Friday are the days Maddock is trying out his distance me nin cross country work, and his heavy men in the weights and jumps indoors.

Coach Harvey Holmes, who is well known to local bootball circles, has been retained for another year by the University of Southern California, where he coached the team successfully this year, With the new road opened he might have a listed game with his old team on the east bench before the season closes.

The Agricultural College, however, will admit that the University hasn't much need of recruiting her football team.

But, then, college presidents who have given all their lives to contests of brain and emotions, couldn't be expected to see the either in the sport that has to do with contests for muscular development.

A famous editor says that the ethics of football are to hit a man when he's down. A man never did that and staid in a game a minute after he showed the spirit to do it-at least, so the referees will tell

Now that bowling is having a distinct right of way among the polite sports, men are coming forward to tell how an-cient a game it really is. Most of its wrinkles however, are just recently put into place, and new ones are said to be in the forming.

There is finer tea than we get in this country; not much; it is getting to be a good tea country.
